

CLOSE QUARTER RIFLE COURSE

Close Quarter Rifle Course

This course addresses the use of the rifle to fight between close contact distance and out to 25 yards. You will train in improvised shooting techniques as well as close quarter striking using the firearm. Content includes detailed technique in grip, stance, sight picture, trigger pull, emergency reloads, strategic reloads, administrative reloads, target transitioning, precision shooting trigger technique, and rapid fire trigger technique, intro into use of cover and room clearing. You will need a rifle, at least one extra magazine, 300 rounds of ammo, ear protection, eye protection, and a notebook. Cost is $150 for the 8 course or $75 for the first 4 hours.

Instructor for this course is Richard Clary:

Security Contractor with operational experience in over a dozen countries throughout the Middle East, Southeast Asia, and Europe. Martial Arts Instructor with 30 years experience, 21 years as a firearms instructor, IDPA competitor with 14 combat handgun competition major championships, security consultant to both private personnel and businesses. 30 years experience training private citizens, security, law enforcement, and military personnel.

Classes are limited so call or come by the U.S. Shooting Academy and register.

918-948-7856